

Rasika Dugal reveals what she looks for first when she enters a set

Mumbai, Nov 13 (IANS) Actress Rasika Dugal, who has been promoted up the ranks in the recently released 3rd season of the International Emmy-winning streaming show 'Delhi Crime', has shared what she looks for when she enters a set.

The actress spoke with IANS during the promotional campaign of the 3rd season of her OTT show, and shared how she balances technical aspects of filmmaking with creativity. The actress said that after entering a set, she enquires about the focus pullers, the ones who make sure that the actors stay in focus during shot taking.

Rasika told IANS, "When I enter a set, I'm like, 'I hope they've got a really good focus puller', that is really my prayer at that time. And that's why the technical aspects are so important. Some directors make it really easy for you to ignore the fact that this job is technically difficult. And some technicians make it very easy for you. They don't let you remember that the camera is here and that you have to hit a mark." However, there are many who are very particular about

A decade of Let's All Go to Cinépolis: Children's Day screenings for over 13,000 children

Mumbai, Cinépolis India today hosted the 10th edition of Let's All Go to Cinépolis. Welcoming more than 13,000 children for complimentary morning shows across 40 Cinépolis locations in partnership with Round Table India (RTI). Screenings featured Mahayodha and Kantara in Tamil and Kannada. Launched in 2014, Let's All Go to Cinépolis provides a safe, welcoming environment for children who don't otherwise get the opportunity. Since inception, the program has reached more than 45,000 children through coordinated efforts with RTI and a network of schools and child-focused organisations. Speaking about the initiative, Devang Sampat, Managing Director, Cinépolis India, said, "Let's All Go to Cinépolis started with a simple idea. Every child should experience the big screen in a safe, welcoming environment. Ten years on, we are glad to continue this effort with Round Table India and our local partners." Ruchi Bansal, President of Round Table India said, "Our work with Cinépolis helps bring Children's Day to life in cinemas across many cities. The partnership ensures a well-organised offering that many children look forward to each year."

the technical aspects. She further mentioned, "As one has to work in those situations also. In my humble assessment of both of them, for a good performance, I think only the one which ignores the technicals and the team, the director and the technical team allow you to do that work really well for me. There are some sets where I don't even know who the focus puller is. That guy has never come out and said, 'This is your mark, please stand here'. You move a bit here and there, and in the end, you will find you at the point that the director wants you in".

Rakul Preet Singh visits Siddhivinayak Temple ahead of the release of 'De De Pyaar De 2'

Mumbai, Nov 13 (IANS) Actress Rakul Preet Singh visited the Siddhivinayak Temple in the Dadar area of the city on Thursday to seek blessing from Lord Ganpati ahead of the release of her upcoming film 'De De Pyaar De 2'. The actress was dressed in a yellow traditional wear. After seeking blessings from Lord Ganpati, she interacted with the media stationed outside the temple. She served them prasad, and even asked the media personnel to take the prasad in right hand. Meanwhile, the actress is all set to share the screen with Bollywood superstar Ajay Devgn, and Madhavan in 'De De Pyaar De 2'. She is the new entrant in the franchise, and will be seen essaying the role of Ajay Devgn's character's romantic interest in the film. Earlier, on Monday, the actress had shared her experience of working with R. Madhavan in the film. R. Madhavan will be seen playing Rakul Preet Singh's father, and the key character in Ashish (played by Ajay Devgn) and Ayesha's love story. Speaking about working with him as his on-screen daughter, the actress shared, "I have always been a fan of his. It has been so interesting to work with him as his daughter. I think we shared many interesting conversations on sets, about some of our common interests and just such a lovely person he is and so grounded, so amazing as a human being that I really restate the fact that you have to stay grounded, no matter how many years you have been in the industry, it's been an absolute delight working with him."
